QUEENS

Created for the “Queens” who are ready to claim their power but feel stuck in the in-between, rebuilding after a breakup, balancing careers, motherhood, life and love...Four best friends from different cultures meet at LA cafés and restaurants for the kind of conversations people usually only have in group chats: bold, hilarious, a little unfiltered, and unexpectedly healing.

It's glamour + real life. Feminine power with a wink and a mic drop that will make you laugh, cry, and everything in between.

MEET YOUR 4 NEW BEST FRIENDS

Carol: She's the main character. She believes in love, but she's done with illusions. Soft heart, high standards and zero time for chaos. She turns life's lessons into clarity, and clarity into a bold next move.

Sofia: She feels everything. She holds the group together, asks the soft questions, and keeps things real.

Priya: She's calm, sharp, and emotionally intelligent. She reads patterns like receipts and says something that nobody expects, taking the conversation to a new level.

Lola: She's the life of the party, bold, straightforward and hilarious. She says what everyone's thinking, makes it funny, and dares the others to raise their standards.

Which one is more like you?

EP1 SAMPLE (keep this as-is, but fix name spelling)

Carol: "So... it's official. I'm divorced."

Sofia: "Oh no, Queen. Are you okay? Like... actually okay?"

Carol: "Yeah. Amazingly... I'm okay. I feel... peace. We should celebrate."

Lola: "Peace. Celebrate?! Now we are talking. I was about to get my tissue box."

Carol (laughing): "I know. It's suspicious. Like... how is she calm during a storm?"

Priya: "That's not suspicious. That's your nervous system finally exhaling."

Sofia: "I honestly don't know how you're doing it. Two kids... work... and now all the... paperwork."

Carol: "That's the thing. The feelings are fine. It's the admin that's trying to kill me."

Priya: "Admin is the final card of divorce. If you didn't die from the heartbreak, you'll want to kill yourself reading court orders."

Carol: "Yeah, that's me right now. Plus all the bills. School stuff. The house. The spreadsheets... I feel like I divorced a man and got married to Google Drive."

Lola: "Stop. A shared Google Drive is brutal."

Carol: "My mom always told me to be independent, but being independent sucks sometimes. I want to be interdependent."

Lola: "'Interdependent'... sounds like 'I can be alone, but I'd rather not assemble IKEA furniture solo.'"

Priya: "Interdependent... aka emotionally fluent but still needs someone to help me carry my shopping and listen to my complaints about work at dinner."

Sofia: "That's not funny, girls. She's right. It's important to own our identity, goals, and passions while having a secure, intimate connection."

Carol: "I'm sorry, but it was kind of funny and totally true."

They all laugh.
